- This Christmas time, please consider recycling your unwanted spectacles and your used postage stamps. Wollaston & Strixton Mothers' Union will recycle your old spectacles and send them to World Vision who will pass them on to Africa and India where they can be reused to improve vision for those with poor eyesight. We also collect used postage stamps and send those on to raise funds to support a missionary. It will cost you a little bit of time but it is of huge benefit to those who receive. Please pass any donations to Jean Rose. Thank you.
