- New evening service at St. Mary's Wollaston - On Sunday 13th October at 5pm a new evening service is being launched. It will be informal, have a similar worship style as the morning, and, at least initially, it will have the same talk as the morning. The purpose of this new service is to attract a new congregation and give the existing congregation more flexibility as to when they engage with worship. It is really not expected that people will want to come to the 11am and the 5pm! Also Pursuing His Presence (PHP), will after this date, change format to be a similar style to the other evening services. Therefore the last PHP in its current format and time will be Sunday 6th October.
- Mothers' Union 5km Sponsored Walk around Wollaston Book the date now Saturday 12th October 2019 leaving St Mary's Wollaston at 10.30am and returning to church on completion of the walk, (or run if you feel really energetic), for refreshments. Sponsor forms are available from Jean Rose Phone 01933 663778. All money raised will go to fund projects supporting Christian families in need in U.K. and abroad. Thank you.
- Mental Health - Healing & Ministry: A practical day of resourcing your church, Saturday 19th October, 10am - 4pm, Christ The King, Kettering. Open to all, no booking necessary, £10 donation for the day, bring your own packed lunch. Leaflets giving more details available in church.
