Dear friends

You can watch the funeral online if you register beforehand with this private Facebook group, and answer the security question correctly- you will know the answer!

There is to be a practice run on Tuesday 1st to make sure that everyone can have access, and those in the group will be invited.

If you are unable to watch on that Friday morning, it will be possible to log in and watch it afterwards.

Please do pass this information on to anyone else who might be interested.

It will be family flowers only on Friday but if anyone would like to give thanks for Dad's life by making a donation to his favourite charities, Mission Aviation Fellowship and Operation Smile, they can use this link.

With best wishes,

- Children's work at St Mary's Wollaston - As we get back to church this time, as a team we have decided to initially provide table activities for children, including craft linked to the theme that day.

From the front we will have a more children friendly slot.

We will not be taking the children out for their own activities.

We will keep reviewing what we are doing! And after the June restriction easing date may change what we are doing.

This is a great opportunity to review and rethink! If you would like to be part of thinking about children's work moving forward please do get in touch and be part of the rebuilding!

Many thanks,

Louise

News from the Daylight Centre (30th May)

Food boxes being sent out are now averaging 15 or so a day so per week somewhere between 75 and 80 packs of food are distributed. Each food parcel is around £40.00 in value and these are delivered twice a week to those in need. The Food Bank will be starting a new initiative in a few weeks, they are going to be making up specific packs for the rough sleepers, those who have no access to boiling water or electricity, and also for the homeless, those in boarding houses or hotels who can only access a microwave and kettle. Food parcels will be tailored to suit the cooking ability of the receiver. Please think about what a rough sleeper may be able to manage – chocolate, biscuits, crackers, and anything that doesn't need to be cooked. For those who are homeless but have night-time accommodation, food that is microwaveable or can be made up with a kettle of hot water, which gives much more scope for pot noodles, mug shots and pasta pots. The Food Bank also provides hot meals twice a week for families.

Thank you to everyone who generously supports this initiative.

Stocks are now running low on: UHT Whole Milk (not semi-skimmed), Tinned rice pudding, Mug Shots, Cup-a- Soups, Pasta Pots, and Packet Noodles, and there is always a need for, Sugar, the smaller child-sized cartons of fruit juice, Fruit juice (not grapefruit), Coffee, Biscuits, Crackers (savory biscuits), Jam, Washing Powder tabs, Microwaveable Rice, Packets of rice (basmati, wholegrain etc), Boil-in-the-Bag Rice, Instant Whip Desserts, Jelly (in cubes or already made up in pots), Custard (packets, tins or boxes), Tinned Fruit, Toilet Rolls, Fruit Squash, Boxes of Breakfast Cereal, Tinned spaghetti, Tinned Potatoes, Tinned vegetables, Tins of meat (eg Stewing Steak, Meat Curry, Minced Beef etc) including Fray Bentos Tinned Pies, Small Tins of fish (sardines, tuna etc), Spray Deodorant for ladies and men, and cheap tin openers (for the homeless).
